

Form B281 - Appearance of Child Support Creditor or Representative

The form has been modified to require the debtor(s) to disclose only the last four digits of the debtor's and joint debtor's social security number. Those four digits will provide creditors with sufficient information to identify the debtor accurately while affording greater privacy to the debtor.