Discovery

Discovery is complete.

Trial

Trial of this matter has been set for 9:00 a.m. on January 14, 2004, with 1 day reserved for trial. Trial will be conducted by the Honorable James S. Starzynski in the Bankruptcy Courtroom, 13th Floor, Dennis Chaves Federal Building and United States Courthouse, 500 Gold Avenue SW, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

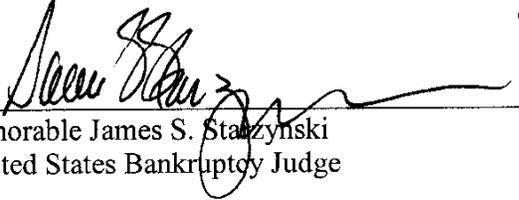

Exhibits

IT IS ORDERED that the parties exchange the exhibits they intend to use at trial by January 5, 2004. By 4:30 p.m. on January 13, 2004, parties shall submit three (3) sets of exhibits to the Court's chambers, for the use of the Court, the Court's staff attorney and the witness. Parties must also submit a list by 4:30 p.m. on January 13, 2004, signed off on by all parties, of exhibits that the parties stipulate are admissible. By stipulating to the admission of an exhibit, a party is not waiving his or her right to argue relevance, weight, or materiality of the exhibit, including the right to argue that the exhibit in question should be treated as if it had not been admitted. (The purpose of this ruling is to minimize trial time spent authenticating exhibits for admission.) All exhibits will be offered and received in evidence as the first item of business at the trial. Exhibits not listed will generally not be allowed, except for rebuttal exhibits which could not be anticipated.

Witnesses

IT IS ORDERED that the parties exchange any final lists of witnesses they intend to or may call by October 30, 2003. If any witnesses appear on the final list that have not previously been disclosed, the party listing them will make them available for deposition on short notice. By 4:30 p.m. on January 13, 2004, the parties shall submit this list to the Court's chambers. Witnesses not listed will generally not be allowed, except for rebuttal witnesses the need for whose testimony could not be reasonably anticipated.
