Chapter 7

MOTION FOR ADMISSION TO PRACTICE PRO HAC VICE

The undersigned David A. Schuricht of the law firm of Katzen & Schuricht, a member in good standing of the California State Bar, hereby moves the court for an order admitting him to practice before this court pro hac vice, for the purpose of representing AFCO Credit Corporation ("AFCO") as its counsel of record in this case.¹ The motion is also based upon the Schuricht Declaration Supporting Motion for Admission to Practice Pro Hac Vice and upon the proposed Order Granting Motion for Admission to Practice Pro Hac Vice, both of which are being submitted herewith.

Proposed Attorney for AFCO Credit Corporation

¹ The undersigned has previously been admitted pro hac vice for the purpose of representing AFCO in an adversary proceeding in this case, Gonzales vs. AFCO Insurance, Adversary Proceeding No. 03-1164 S. However, the previous order admitting the undersigned to practice was limited by its terms to representing AFCO in the adversary proceeding, which has since been settled. AFCO is now filing an application for payment of a "superpriority" administrative expense, and the undersigned is filing this motion primarily so that, assuming this motion is granted, the undersigned will be permitted to represent AFCO in relation to its administrative expense application.
