Notice to Practitioners

New Clerk Selected: Norman H. Meyer, Jr., to Join Court April 23

Norman H. Meyer, Jr., has been selected for the position of clerk of the bankruptcy court. Mr. Meyer is a graduate of the University of New Mexico (B.A., cum laude with distinction, 1977) and has a Master of Science degree in Judicial Administration (University of Denver College of Law, 1979). Currently serving as clerk of court for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia (since 1996), Mr. Meyer's experience includes working with the federal District Court in Arizona as a deputy in charge and chief deputy clerk (1989-1996) and in judicial administration positions in Oregon and Wisconsin state courts.

Mr. Meyer and his family (wife, Millie, and 2 sons, Lowell, 20, a sophomore at Rice University, and Alton, 17, a high school senior) are eager to return to New Mexico. Mr. Meyer attended high school in Silver City and his wife went to Aztec and Farmington high schools. They can't wait to order green chile and get something other than a blank stare!

Chief Judge James S. Starzynski and Judge Mark B. McFeeley were pleased with the effectiveness of the clerk selection committee, whose members included the judges, senior U. S. District Judge John E. Conway, Chief U. S. Magistrate Judge William W. Deaton, UNM's Anderson Schools of Management economics professor Allen Parkman, then-Bankruptcy Law Section chair Gerald R. Velarde, standing chapter 13 trustee Kelley M. Skehen, and chief deputy clerk Margaret Grammer Gay. The judges appreciated the considerable time and effort committee members put into the job and found their comments very helpful.

Mr. Meyer's first day at work in New Mexico is set for Monday, April 23.
