Notice to Practitioners

Security Screening to Expand Effective March 1, 2001

Tenth Circuit Judge Paul J. Kelly, Jr., chairman of the District of New Mexico's Federal Court Security Committee, has announced the committee's decision that all non-tenants of buildings housing federal court facilities, along with their briefcases and packages, will be subject to security screening effective March 1, 2001. This policy includes the Federal Building and United States Courthouse at 421 Gold Avenue SW in Albuquerque, where the bankruptcy court is located. The decision supersedes previous policy which allowed attorneys who possessed an attorney identification card issued by the United States District Court to bypass security screening.
