Gideon's Army is a 2013 Sundance award-winning documentary by Georgetown Law alumna Dawn Porter (L'93). Gideon's Army follows the personal stories of three young public defenders in the Deep South challenging the assumptions that drive a strained criminal justice system to the breaking point.

See a free movie and earn CLE!

The New Mexico Chapter of the Federal Bar Association is proud to offer a special showing of the movie Gideon's Army in recognition of the 50th anniversary of the Criminal Justice Act (CJA), and the Supreme Court's decision in Gideon v. Wainwright. The CLE program includes a panel discussion of the CJA led by United States Magistrate Judge Kirtan Khalsa.

Panel Members

Hon. Kirtan Khalsa, United States Magistrate Judge
Damon Martinez, U.S. Attorney, District of New Mexico
Greg Fouratt, Former U.S. Attorney, District of New Mexico
Steve McCue, Federal Public Defender, District of New Mexico
Jacquelyn Robins, CJA Panel Attorney
