

Register Now for the 2006 Tenth Circuit Bench & Bar Conference!
(Anticipated 10 – 12 hours of CLE credits)

Registration is now open for judges and attorneys to register for the 2006 Tenth Circuit Bench & Bar Conference at the incredible, award-winning Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs, CO. Conference dates are September 7 – 9, 2006. Don't miss the spa, pool, and golf that are part of the Broadmoor's $100 million expansion.

Please visit the registration web site at <http://www.ca10.uscourts.gov/judconf/index.php> and view the outstanding agenda and great lineup of speakers and panelists. The complimentary Opening Reception will take place at the nearby, historic Penrose House where you can meet and greet the circuit, district, bankruptcy and magistrate judges of the Tenth Circuit.

The Fireside Chat presented by the Tenth Circuit Historical Society will feature special guest Retired Associate Justice Sandra Day O'Connor. Our Circuit Associate Justice Stephen Breyer and the Court's newest member, Associate Justice Samuel Alito, will discuss their views of the Court's term. Legal media and blogging panelists include Linda Greenhouse, Byron York, Nina Totenberg, Eugene Volokh, John Hinderaker and Lyle Denniston.

Solicitor General Paul Clement will lead a distinguished panel including Erwin Chermersinsky and Robert Nagel discussing "The Roberts' Court – Year One."

The "Master of Charisma" Richard Greene, one of the leading communication coaches in the world, will educate and entertain you with "Words That Shook The World."

Breakout sessions will include topics on evidence, sentencing, technology, discrimination law, bankruptcy, religion, and ethics.

General registration fee is $250. Special registration rates are available for new attorneys (less than five years of practice) and law school students!

Registration deadline is July 31, 2006.
